ONE HUNDRED LIVES LOST

In Collision of Two Vessels at Sea in Heavy Fog.

San Francisco, Cal., July 22.—In one of the worst marine disasters in the history of the Californian coast between 100 and 150 lives were lost, as far as has been learned by a collision between the steamer Columbia and the lumber schooner San Pedro in Shelter Cove, twelve miles below Noyo-Humboldt county line between 12 and 1 o'clock yesterday morning. Only meager details of the tragedy have been received though every effort has been made to get the facts.

Scores of telegrams to Eureka, the nearest point of importance remain unanswered. The few details known here were brought by the steamer Roanoke and the steam schooner Daisy Mitchell, which arrived in San Francisco this forenoon.

The Columbia, a 300-foot steel vessel of the San Francisco and Portland Steamship Company, while bound from San Francisco for Portland, Ore., with 189 passengers and a crew of sixty, collided with and was rammed by the San Pedro, a 170-foot wooden steamer, southbound for this city. The sea was smooth but the weather was foggy.

The San Pedro, looming out of the mist a few ship lengths away, bore down on the Columbia at high speed, despite frantic efforts to clear. With a grinding crash the San Pedro sank her stem fully ten feet into the Columbia's port bow.

Nearly all of the Columbia's passengers and many of her crew were asleep in their cabins at the time of the crash. As the San Pedro backed away the sea poured in through the ragged hole in the Columbia's bow above and below the water line and in five minutes the Columbia sank to the bottom, the deep waters of Shelter Cove covering over the tops of the Columbia's mast.

Shortly after the collision the steamers Roanoke and Geo. W. Elder, and the steam schooner Daisy Mitchell, all southbound came on the scene and stood by. The Elder took the San Pedro in tow and the latest reports are of their arrival in Rurke.

The Daisy Mitchell offered assistance to the Elder but this was declined. She picked up a life boat and a raft of the Columbia and brought them to this city.

Near the scene of the wreck the Roanoke picked up a life raft and found underneath it the dead body of a passenger supposed to be Edward Butler, of Portsmouth, N. H.

The offices of the merchant's exchange in this city and of various newspapers have been besieged since early morning by relatives and friends of the Columbia's passengers but insistent and tearful requests for information remains unsatisfied. Beyond the reported facts that Butler was drowned and that Capt. Doran went down with his ship no details of the casualties were received.

The assistant secretary of the steamship company said this afternoon that the Columbia lies in deep water fifteen miles off shore and that for the present at least no attempt will be made to raise her. Capt. Doran was regarded as one of the ablest seamen who ever operated a vessel on the coast.

Dawson-McGowan.

Mr. Will D. Dawson and Miss Mary McGowan, of this city, were quietly married in the Crittenden Hotel parlors at Marion Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dawson were driven to Crittenden Springs where they will spend a week before returning to Princeton, where they will be "at home" to their many friends.

Mr. Dawson and Miss McGowan left Princeton on the early train Sunday morning for Marion, arriving there, they decided to be married by Rev. Elgin, which was witnessed by a few persons. Misses Bessie Martin and Birdie Vivian being among those present.

Miss McGowan, the bride, is the pretty and attractive daughter of Mrs. Sallie McGowan, of this city, and is one of Princeton's most popular young ladies and number her friends by her acquaintances.

Mr. Dawson is one of Princeton's best and most popular young business men, and has been engaged in the drug business under the firm name of Eblen & Dawson, for the past several years.

We wish for Mr. and Mrs. Dawson much success and trust their path through life will ever be strewn with roses.—Princeton Leader.

ALL NIGHT IN THE WOODS

Aged Women Alights From Train At the Wrong Place.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 16.—Mrs. John Denneen, an aged woman one of this city, underwent a distressing experience last night. She had visited Nashville, Tenn., with a party of excursionist and her train arrived at the local station about midnight. Relatives who were at the station were unable to find her. All night long a search was made as it was known she was on the train a few miles before Hopkinsville was reached. About sunrise this morning a party of searchers found her near the city in an exhausted condition. She had gotten off the train at the "Y" south of town under the impression that she had reached her destination and, bearings, had wandered all night in the woods.

Injured in Railroad Wreck.

Mr. R. E. Cooper reached home this morning badly injured and in bandages as a result of a terrible train wreck on the Southern railroad near Johnson City, Tenn., Monday. Mr. Cooper was sitting in the coach where eight people were killed instantly when the cars telescoped.

Mr. Cooper was painfully injured about the head and face, both knees suffered painful bruises and wrenches and the left leg from the thigh to the ankle was one mass of bruises and cuts. That he escaped death is almost a miracle and as it is his injuries are very severe.

Mr. Cooper was taken to a hotel in Johnson City and he wired to his wife here that he was all right. Dr. R. F. McDaniel was at the camp of the Meacham Engineering & Construction company about six miles out of Johnson City and he was sent for and dressed Mr. Cooper's wounds. Mr. Cooper is president of the construction company which is now engaged on some railroad work near where the wreck occurred and he was on his way to the company's camp when hurt.—Hopkinsville New Era.

Mr. Cooper is interested in mining in this county and is a brother-in-law of Johnson Crider.

Veteran Steamboat Man Passes Away.

Rockport, Ind., July 22.—James Christ, a veteran steamboat man, died this morning at his home in Grandview, Ind., from a complication of diseases at the age of 58. He was a mate on the steamer City of Pittsburg when she burned in the Mississippi river near Cairo, Ill., five years ago and won great praise by saving the life of a woman at great risk to his own life. He swam with her to shore.

CEMETERY ASSOCIATION

Elect Officers and are Ready to Make Deeds to the Lots Already Sold

The committee appointed to look after the cemetery matters, are glad to report that this property is now owned by the town and deeded to the Marion Cemetery Association, which is a corporation with the following officers: H. K. Woods, president; Thos. H. Cochran, vice-president; Mrs. Cora P. Crider, treasurer; Miss Nell Walker, secretary; H. A. Haynes, J. F. Dodge, H. V. Stone and John A. Moore, trustees.

After many unavoidable delays we are at last prepared to make deeds to the lots sold and parties purchasing the lots can get their deed by calling on the Secretary for same.

Our work at the cemetery was begun the first of June and those who have been there since that time and have noticed the changes and improvements that have been made, are well satisfied with the nature and character of the work. Many lots still are uncared for and we would be glad if each owner would call on us and help in this matter. We want the whole place to have a neat, uniform appearance, this we can not give it unless every one helps. We are glad to say that most all have responded cheerfully and willingly to our request for $3. for each lot owned. We feel sure that no one feels but that he has gotten his moneys worth as to the work done and being done. Go and see for yourself.

There is great need of other work to be done, but we will not be able to do this year with the $3. contribution. We are arranging to have some ice cream suppers through the summer season, so as secure money with which to gravel all the drives and walks in the cemetery. This will take a great deal of gravel and a great many dollars. We are asking a hearty co-operation of all in this work.

Cemetery Association Tenders Thanks

The Committee of the Cemetery wishes to thank all who so generously and willingly aided them in their supper on Saturday night last. Most every one responded very liberally to the request for cream, etc., and many of them were those who have no personal interest in the cemetery here.

The young ladies who did the soliciting, and also did the serving that night, were faithful, and to them we are especially indebted for the services rendered by them. The band furnished its best music, and plenty of it. To them we tender our thanks. The public was generous in its patronage, although the night was a damp one.

The receipts of the evening was something between $45.00 and $50.00. Some promised money, when solicited for help. All has not been paid in; hence we cannot give the exact amount just now. We hereby tender our thanks to each one who assisted in the work of serving as well as those who contributed.

The work of gravelling the walks will begin next week.

James G. Gardner, president of the West Kentucky Coal Company, and J. C. Brydon, vice president, of New York City, are in the city today. —Paducah News Democrat.

BLACKFORD BOY HURT

At Wilson Tuesday Afternoon at 2:50 O'clock by Falling Pillage—Was Carried to Henderson.

Ewell McKinley, a young man whose home is at Blackford, Ky., was seriously injured at Wilson Henderson county, Tuesday afternoon by falling pillage which he was unloading from an Illinois Central freight train.

McKinley had his left leg broken very badly and he was carried to Fletchers Hospital for treatment.

He was at work with several others at the time of the accident. —Morganfield Post.

Celebrated His Fiftieth Birthday.

W. B. Stenbridge celebrated his fiftieth birthday Saturday a large crowd attended and at twelve o'clock a grand dinner was served and was enjoyed by all present. In the afternoon the old folks chatted and the young folks sung, it was a great day to all. Every one seem to be glad to be there, the guest were T. J. Fralick, H. R. Stenbridge, W. E. Davis and family, L. E. Fralick and family, Mrs. Mary Murray and son of Marion, Mrs. Mollie Coleman and children, Mrs. Bettie Vanhoosier and sons, Mrs. Smitha Roberts and children, Misses Clara Bertie Davis and friend. A GUEST

More Lots At Bargain Prices

We are planning to have another lot sale on August 1st, 1907, and those that missed buying a lot July 4th may have another opportunity to start a home on the installment plan.

We are making a plat of about twenty lots on the North side of the extension of West Gum street, and will auction them upon the same terms as those sold on July 4th, being $10.00 cash and $2.00 per month until the lots are paid for. Should the purchaser die before paying the installments due, a deed without further payment will be made to the heirs of the deceased purchaser.

If Opportunities Knock Why Not Take Heed?

West Gum street, upon which these lots are located, is one of the principal residence streets of Marion, and as beautiful homes as can be found in any part of the city is to be seen on this street. It is the coming part of the town. There are no disadvantages to these lots, being outside of the city limits, no town tax to pay, yet one is in reach and can grasp every opportunity afforded by our hustling little city.

Remember August 1st, 1907, is the last chance you will have to buy town property in Marion upon the installment plan, so act wisely and be satisfied.

"OLD JIM"

Looms Up as a Portland Cement Property Says State Geologists.

The discovery of oolitic limestone of proper quality and red clay with just the right proportions of silica, iron and alumina to make Portland cement of the best grade on the land of Blue & Nunn, at the Old Jim mine, is regarded by all who are familiar with such matters as being the most important one in this district for many months.

The discovery was made by the State Geological Survey. F. Julius Fols the Assistant Geologist, having collected the clay and had it analyzed by Dr. H. M. Peter, Chief Chemist of the Survey, and the owners were very much elated to learn of the discovery, which, it is unnecessary to say, is of general interest to the county.

This is the second discovery of an important Portland cement proposition by the State Survey, a similar discovery being made in the Eastern part of the State, near Stanton, where preparation for the erection of a large plant is now being made.

As Portland cement is worth $15 per ton and as the clay and limestone found at the Old Jim are all that are necessary for its production besides the proper machinery, the value of the property is readily seen.

Mr. Fols is home for a short vacation, after which he will proceed to do several weeks' field work in this and other counties of this mineral district where he will verify as far as possible in the field the geological and mining maps which he and his assistants have spent the spring and summer preparing. He will also collect additional mine notes so as to make his large report on the district as complete as possible before sending it to press early in the fall.

Building Boom in Marion.

Among the new residences being built in the city are those for Will Clifton, who is adding a nice addition to his home on North Main street. R. W. Wilson who is building a nice five-room house for rent on the lot he purchased of J. P. Pierce, next to W. L. Staton's on South Main street. Carl Henderson is building a brick residence on West Carlisle street, opposite the McConnell House. Levi Cook's new home, which is a model of convenience and comfort, is nearing completion on the lot recently purchased of Mrs. Sallie Deboe, which is in a most desirable section of town. Fred Durham has about completed his new home near John Hurley's on Gum street, opposite John W. Wilson's.

In addition to the residences the new Baptist church, a magnificent pile of brick and stone, is taking shape and ere many weeks this structure will be ready for occupancy. Other buildings are contemplated between now and fall.

Resolutions.

WHEREAS, Sovereign Thomas Roscoe Rochester, a member of Rosewood Camp No. 22, Woodmen of the World, Marion, Kentucky, has departed from our Forest and has gone upon the last long journey to the Forest of God, where the white winged dove sings its song of divine love and where the great Forest trees of God live forever and, WHEREAS, our dear sovereign ever lived true to his obligations and devoted to his brother Woodmen and, WHEREAS, Roscoe was held in the highest esteem by all sovereigns and, WHEREAS, like the trees of the forest our sovereign has sprung into life like a prattling babe, a tiny shrub, had grown to be a man like the vigorous sapling, around which the ivy and the vine have loved to cling and find a safe protection, and now like the tree, he has been cut down and the ivy and the vine feel the crushing blow. The tree can never on earth be their support again but in the better life, toward which we cast our longing eyes—there shall be no parting there. Therefore be it,

RESOLVED: That in the death of Sovereign Thomas Roscoe Rochester that Rosewood Camp No. 22 has lost one of the best and noblest members that has ever entered the Forest of Woodcraft. That the Church has lost one of its truest members and the State one of its best citizens. That as true and sympathetic Woodmen we mingle our tears with his sorrowing ones and may the Great Father be thy shield and guide and may his protecting angels guard thee from all harm and direct thy ways in the paths of rectitude and honor.

So, let him sleep that dreamless sleep, Our sorrows clustering round his head.

Be comforted loved ones, who weep, He lives with God; he is not dead.

That a copy of these Resolutions be spread on the records of our Camp a copy sent to the family of our deceased sovereign and a copy be published in the Crittenden Record-Press.

A Change in Business.

Crowell, Nunn & Co., have sold their hardware business at Blackford to McNeely & Chandler. This concern carries one of the largest stocks of hardware and implements in the county. Mr. Chandler was connected with the old firm for several years and Mr. McNeely is an experienced business man.—Providence Enterprise.

Birthday Party.

Miss Ruth Croft celebrated her thirteenth birthday at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. E. Croft, last Saturday afternoon, July the twentieth. Delightful refreshments, consisting of ices, ice cream and cake.

She received quite a number of pretty birthday presents. The guests were: Hazel and Lucile Pollard, Louise Clement, Mildred Elgin, Mayme and Ruth Haynes, Helen Sayre, Elizabeth Cook, Myra Dixon, Ula Wheeler, Anna Cox, Dixie Trisler, Virginia Blue, Linda Jenkins, Anna Haynes, Suise Boston, Joe Walke, Bob Sayre, Robert Jenkins, Dudley Noggle, Ted Boston, Douglas Carnahan, George Orme, Edward Maynard.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincerest thanks and appreciation to our many friends who were so kind to us and our dear son, during his last illness and death. May God in his infinite love be with you and may His richest blessings rest on you and the prayers of W. N. ROCHESTER AND WIFE.

GREATEST EXHIBITION

Premium List of Kentucky State Fair
Offers $25,000 to all Classes of Exhibitors

Three hundred and one different lots, 1,172 classes, in which will be made 2,689 awards, an average of 448 awards a day for six days.

This, in brief, describes the premium list for the 1907 Kentucky State Fair, just issued. Of the $25,000 in premiums, $15,000 is appropriated by the General Assembly of Kentucky, and $10,000 added by the State Board of Agriculture, under whose auspices the Kentucky State Fair will be given in Louisville, September 16-21.

In Department "A", horses, there are 77 classes and 226 awards will be made. The classifications include light harness, three and five-gait saddlers, roadsters, combination harness and saddlers, American carriage, plantation saddlers, runabouts, high steppers, thoroughbreds, and Shetland and other ponies. Ball Bros. offer $250 in two special classes for the best 1907 foal of Montgomery Chief. The American Saddle Horse Breeders Association offers a one hundred dollar cup. Other silver cups are offered by Col. W. J. Hogan, the Powhatan Stock Farm, and Smyser Bros.

Eleven classes are devoted to mules, in which 29 awards will be made. There are twelve classes for jack stock, and 30 awards will be made. These include a fifty dollar cup offered by W. T. Hayes of Bloomfield.

Four hundred and seven awards cover the beef cattle department, which is 151 classes divided among Short-horns, Herefords, Polled Durhams, Aberdeen-Angus, and Red Polls. There are special Kentucky classes on Short-horns, Herefords and Polled Durhams. The Short-horn Breeders Association has appropriated $679 in premiums in this department, the Hereford Association, $300, and the Polled Durham Association, $200.

Dairy cattle will receive 121 awards in 59 classes. There are 17 classes for Jerseys, and 14 each for Holstein-Friesians, Ayrshires, and Guernseys. In both the beef cattle and dairy cattle departments there are lots for individuals, exhibitor's herds, breeder's young herds, get of sire and produce of cow, and championships.

Two hundred and seventeen awards in 77 different classes comprise the swine department, in which are to be shown Berkshires, Duroc-Jerseys, Poland Chinas, Chester Whites, Tanworths, Yorkshires, Hampshires, etc. There are special rings for Kentucky classes. Awards are to be made on individuals, herds, groups, and championships.

The sheep and goat department has 80 classes in which 209 awards will be made. Ten classes are devoted to each of the following: Shropshires, Cotswolds, South Downs, American Merinos, Oxford Downs, Hampshires, Dorsets, and Angora goats. The classes are divided among individuals, flocks, pens and championships. The American Hampshire Sheep Association has offered several special premiums in this department.

Take The Postmaster's Word For it

Mr. F. M. Hamilton, postmaster at Cherryvale, Ind., keeps also a stock of general merchandise and patent medicines. He says: "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is standard here in its line. It never fails to give satisfaction and we could hardly afford to be without it." For sale by J. H. Orme, the leading druggist in Western Kentucky. Haynes & Taylor, the enterprising druggists, of Marion.

A Business Suggestion.

A Calcutta journal calls attention to the demand for crocodile skins in America, and from time to time has urged the natives living contiguous to crocodile haunts to engage extensively in the business of killing this creature for his skin, guaranteeing that they will be able to sell to American buyers at remunerative prices all the skins they can take. There are thousands of crocodiles in the lagoons and tidalwater streams of India, easily accessible and there are Indians in plenty to hunt them and take their skins.—Ex.

The Doctor Away From Home When Most Needed.

People are often very much disappointed to find their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp colic and cholera morbus require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proved fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale by J. H. Orme, the leading druggist in Western Kentucky. Haynes & Taylor, the enterprising druggists, of Marion.

What Kentucky Has Done.

Kentucky, under George Roger Clark, moved the boundary of the United States from the Ohio River to the Great Lakes.

It was a Kentucky statesman—John Breckinridge—who was the real author of the Louisiana purchase.

Kentucky made the war of 1812, and did more than her share of the fighting in it.

Kentucky was the first state to establish common schools and support them by a tax on all the property of the state.

Kentucky secured the free navigation of the Mississippi river.

Kentucky gave more soldiers to the Texas revolution than any other state.

Kentucky furnished more soldiers for the Mexican war than any other state.

The first steamboat ever launched in the world was the work of a Kentuckian—John Fitch.

Joel T. Hart was a Kentuckian, as well as America's greatest sculptor.

Jewett was a Kentuckian, as well as America's greatest portrait painter.

Thomas F. Marshall and Richard Menifee were Kentuckians, as well as the finest orators of the generation of orators.

George Roberson, a Kentucky jurist, gave more suggestions to the judiciary at Westminster than any other American judge.

Ephraim McDowell, a Kentucky surgeon, performed the first successful operation for ovariotomy.

Dr. Brasher, of Kentucky, performed the first successful hip-joint operation. These two feats astonished the medical colleges of Edinburgh, Paris and Berlin.

Bishop Bascom, a Kentuckian, was the greatest pulpit orator our country has produced.

Robert J. Breckinridge was the leading Presbyterian clergyman of two generations.

John A. Broadbuss was the most erudite Hebrew scholar of all Americans.

Spaulding's history of the Catholic Church stamps him as the equal of any American who has written history.

There are more churches and more church members in Kentucky, according to population, than in any other state, and fewer suits for slander and libel.

Kentucky contributed Lincoln to the North and gave Davis to the South.—Central Methodist.

A Happy family.

J. J. Mann, of Fordyce, Ark., writes: Use Carlstedt's German Liver Power for ten years, cured my wife of female troubles. Haven't had a doctor for six years, formerly paid two or three doctor bills a year. Would not be without it. Worth its weight in gold! Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act. Price 25c. Sold by all druggists.

Piles get quick and certain relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Please note it is made alone for Piles, and its action is positive and certain. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large nickel-capped glass jars 50 cents. Sold by Haynes & Taylor.

Alloway Bros.

The old reliable lumber firm of Alloway Bros. has been awarded the contract to build quite a number of houses for the West Kentucky. Coal Co. and the work is moving right along. Alloway Bros. have increased their force in their workshops in order to keep carpenters supplied with door and window frames. It is expected that more building will be done this fall in Sturgis than was ever known before in the history of the town.

This well known firm has just been awarded the contract to build 35 dwelling houses for the West Kentucky folks at the growing town of Wheatcroft.—Sturgis News Democrat.

GREAT BIBLE CONFERENCE

To Be Held at Lebanon Tennessee From July 30, to August 4th.—A Revival Expected

A Bible Conference for the Synods of Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi, of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., will be held at Lebanon, Tennessee, Tuesday, July, 30, to Sunday, August, 4. The purpose is information, inspiration, recreation and fellowship. It will be on the order of the great conferences held annually at Northfield, Mass. and Winona Lake, Ind. It is hoped that the conference may mark the beginning of a great revival in the Southeast that will include all the churches.

An exceedingly strong and attractive program has been arranged.

The music, under the direction of Rev. Alvin L. Carter, will be an attractive feature. The "Winona Hymns" will be used.

Dr. E. A. Elmore, of the Second Presbyterian Church, Chattanooga, will conduct the morning devotional hour. He will be followed by two great Bible teachers, Dr. R. V. Foster and Dr. R. G. Pearson. Dr. Foster will speak on Job, Ecclesiastes and Romans; Dr. Pearson on "Acts and its Message for the Church and Ministry of Today."

Dr. Joseph W. Cochran, of Philadelphia, will preach the opening sermon on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock on Wednesday he will speak on "The Minister for the Twentieth Century and How Shall we Secure More Ministers?"

Dr. Chas. E. Bradt, of Chicago, will deliver three addresses on Thursday, touching Foreign Missions.

On Friday Mr. Joseph E. McAfee of New York, will speak twice on Home Missions.

Saturday will be Sunday School day with Dr. Jas. A. Warden, of Philadelphia, in charge.

Sunday will be devoted to evangelism and Dr. Jas. P. Calhoun will be in charge and will preach twice.

Interesting sunset services will be held each day under the cedars on the great campus of the university.

There will be an exceedingly strong program on Wednesday, Woman's Missionary day, Mrs. W. J. Darby presiding.

A few of the leading speakers on the program not mentioned above are: Drs. C. A. Duncan, Knoxville Tenn; Donald McDonald, Danville, Ky; W. J. Darby, Evansville, Ind; B. P. Fullerton, St. Louis; Samuel T. Wilson, Maryville; and Edwin R. Worrell, Chicago. Several other strong speakers will be heard.

The railroads give one fare plus twenty-five cents for the round trip and a low rate has been made at the big dormitory and at the hotels.

The general public is invited to attend this conference. Those desiring information should write Geo. W. Shelton, Nashville, Tenn., or W. P. Bone, Lebanon, Tenn.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at J. H. Orme's drug store 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Strangely Effected.

Walter, the ten-year-old son of Bud Hughes (colored,) who lives near the Kentucky Fluor Spar mill in the suburbs of the city, has been strangely affected for the past month with something like spinal meningitis.

His head is drawn back and he moans and cries as if in great distress all the time when not asleep which he gets only when under the influence of drugs.

Dr. O. C. Cook is the attending physician, and he took the patient to Salem, Sunday two weeks ago, to consult Dr. J. V. Hayden. They have slight hopes of saving his life.

Extracts from the Crittendon Press, Dated November 15, 1883.

Tom Cochran returned from a trip to Cincinnati, Saturday.

S. Hodge was in Paducah Saturday.

Sam Gugenheim went to Caseyville Tuesday.

Judge T. J. Nunn went to Paducah yesterday.

Lafe Cruce, Groen Jacobs, John S. Woodall, with their wives, went to the Exposition last week.

Mrs. Olive, of Livingston county, is visiting in this county.

Mrs. R. F. Haynes will return to Florida in a few weeks.

Mrs. Allen, of Mt. Vernon, is the guest of Mrs. T. J. Cameron.

Marriage license have been issued to C. A. H. Humphrey to Mary D. Tudor, W. J. Young to Florence Yandell, B. F. Walker to Eunice French.

Sam Henry, the man who killed Stull, was tried for carrying the pistol he did the work with; the trial occurred Tuesday and he was cleared notwithstanding the evidence was pretty conclusive against him.

Big crowd in town Monday and a big decrease was made in the town's stock of liquor.

The Cincinnati Spar Mining Co. has suspended operation in this county. The suspension was not incurred by any lack of funds on the part of the company nor on the part of the mines to yield a profit on the capital invested, but we learn that a disagreement among the stockholders brought about the trouble.

Doctors Could Not Help Her.

"I had kidney trouble for years," writes Mrs. Raymond Conner, of Shelton, Wash., "and the doctors could not help me. I tried Foley's Kidney Cure, and the very first dose gave me relief and I am now cured. I can not say too much for Foley's Kidney Cure." It makes the diseased kidneys sound so they will eliminate the poisons from the blood. Unless they do this, good health is impossible. Sold by J. H. Orme.

A Great Railroad System.

Little it was thought when P. G. Kelsey built this road (then the Ohio Valley) that it would ever prove a trunk line of the great Illinois Central from Nashville and Memphis to Chicago and St. Louis, with four passenger trains each way every 24 hours. The people along this line from Princeton to Evansville are blessed with the best train service afforded by any road in the state. Salemen who travel over other roads are ready to admit that this division of the I. C. railroad furnishes far better accommodations than any road in their knowledge. The reason we say this we heard a bunch of the inexperienced class of would be drummers the other night in a neighboring town criticising this the best road they ever rode over. At Sturgis if you want to go South you can catch the Sunrise Cannon Ball, or a little later in the morning the 10:30 or in the evening the 3 o'clock or 6:47. North you have your choice of the 8:45 a m 2 and 6:45 p m and the Cannon Ball at 10:40 p m. How is this for good railroad service?—Sturgis News Democrat.

Hogwallow News.

On account of the cloudy weather along Gander creek it is probable that the supply of sun perch will be short this season.

Prof. Sap Spradlin was attacked yesterday in the geography class with a brain storm and his hair was almost torn out by the roots.

The Excelsior Fiddling Band made a bold attempt to serenade Jefferson Potlocks Friday night, but was forced to retreat after several shots were exchanged.

Be not deceived. Even a guilty man in prison sometimes whistles with apparent joy.

The three benches at the Dog Hill church have been borrowed for the debate at the wild Union school house and on Sunday when it rises to sing the congregation is requested to remain standing.

There being no need of shade in winter, the leaves fall off when summer goes.

The deputy constable will begin making friends with the voters right away as he has decided to run for office again.

Tobe Mosely was reading some very fine print in the almanac today and the strain became so great on his specs that one of the glasses was cracked clear across.

The annual footwashing service at Bounding Billows last Sunday was attended by a large crowd. Nearly everybody took part in the ceremony and all went away feeling five years younger.

Roosters crow at day-break for the people to get up and the chickens to get down.

Considerable mystery surrounds a jug that has been setting on a stump near the read running across Musket Ridge for the past week. It was found Monday that the jug was nearly half full of licker, and its remaining there so long is enshrouded in a dense fog of mystery.

The man sat on the creek bank and fished and fished for several hours without getting so much as a nibble and finally wound up his line and went home disgusted. Just after he left, a very large hungry fish came along and wondered why some one did not come fishing. Moral: The man ought to have fished a while longer.

Fletcher Henstep has discovered that his pond is slowly drying up. He thinks the fish are drinking the water.

Miss Fruzie Allsopp could not ride her tall red mule to Rye Straw Sunday as someone took away the short ladder she uses in order to mount the mule gracefully.

The spiders are dripping the ceiling of the postoffice with webs, which will be used in catching flies this summer.

When it became known this week that the creek was about to rise, Sim Flinders called on his neighbors to protect his patch of land on the west bank and it was only after a hard struggle that the rise was prevented.

It is reported on good authority that we are to have a new moon at an early date.

THE PASSION PLAY.

Its Origin, According to the Tradition of Oberammergau.

According to local tradition, the origin of the Oberammergau Passion play was as follows: When in the year 1633 a deadly plague threatened to depopulate the districts of Partenkirchen, Escheloke and Kohlgrub, which are separated from Ammerthal, or the valley of the Ammer, by a rampart of mountains, the Ammerthalers succeeded for a time in protecting themselves against the dread contagion, but one day a native who had been working all summer at Escheloke evaded the quarantine and entered the Ammerthal by a secret path in order to celebrate an annual church festival with his family. Two days afterward he was a corpse, and in less than three weeks the plague had carried off eighty-four of the Ammerthalers.

Despairing of all human succor, the terrified survivors addressed themselves to God and registered a solemn vow that if he heard their prayer and removed the scourge they would represent, every ten years, "for thankful remembrance and edifying contemplation, and by the help of the Almighty, the sufferings of Jesus, the Saviour of the world."

Not a single person died of the plague after the vow was made, though many were affected by it. The first representation of the Passion play in fulfillment of the vow of these simple villagers took place at Oberammergau in the following year, and it has been repeated every ten years without a single omission.

FEMININE INFLUENCE.

Nowhere is It More Felt and Less Recognized Than in France.

There is still in every Frenchman a great deal of the oriental way of looking at woman.

And the French wife knows it, but she goes on helping her "man," be she duchess or midinette. She will forgive again and again; she will let him squander her dot and will learn how to do with fewer frocks (the delight of every Frenchwoman) in an ever pitiful attempt to patch up the fortune and happiness he has wrecked. If she happen to be a shopman's wife he needs no bookkeeper or manager; she will be there from morning till night, the slave of the ledger, careful of every centime, while he, too, often will leave the heavier part of the business in her capable hands and turn his attention to a domino party at the nearest cafe. If she be a peasant's wife no one on the farm will slave harder than she. There is scarcely any labor which she will not undertake.

In every sphere woman is too often the man of the house. Nowhere is feminine influence more active, more felt and less recognized than in France, and nowhere among the civilized nations is man more dependent on woman, more attached to her and less respectful.—London Mail.

Speed of Sounds.

"Judge David Torrence of Derby, Conn.," said a New Haven man, "uttered many an epigram from the bench. In a case concerning a noise nuisance a scientist was once testifying before him about the speed of sound."

"Sound," said the man, "travels at the rate of 400 yards a second."

"All sound?" asked Judge Torrence.

"All," replied the scientist.

"The judge smiled. 'I'm sure you're wrong,' he said. 'I have noticed a great difference between the speed of certain kinds of sound. Thus, slander travels at the rate of quite 1,000 yards a second; flattery, 500 yards, while truth makes only a few feet a second, and slow as its progress is, truth often fails to reach the goal, no matter how short the distance.'"—Indianapolis Star.

The Persians.

Socially I found the Persian people a great improvement on the other orientals of the farther east whom I had met. They are of a happy disposition and bright imagination, doubtless produced by the dry, clear air of their high table lands, which relieves from dullness and depression. They enjoy a joke and laugh heartily, and they are able to see that most things have their amusing side. I was struck with much among all classes which showed that their manners and ways had been favorably touched and turned by a softening civilization of ancient date.—General Gordon's "A Varied Life."

The Woman of Poise.

It is the creed of the up to date woman never to give herself away. A cup of coffee may be spilled over her delicate silk gown; she simply holds the breadths together and goes on with her flow of feminine talk. "Enfant terrible" makes agonizing remarks, a rival gives some cruel stab; all is met with the same absolute immobility of countenance.—London Lady.

The Rehearsal.

Bobby—Sister will be down in a few minutes, Mr. Softly. She's upstairs rehearsing. Mr. Softly (who has come prepared)—W-what is s-she rehearsing. B-bobby? Bobby—I don't know, but she's standing in front of the mirror and blushing and saying, "Oh, Mr. Softly—er—this is so sudden."

Makes a Difference.

"George told me today he loved me more than his very life."

"Nonsense. All the young men say that."

"That may be true. But they all don't say it to me."

He removes the greatest ornament of friendship who takes away from it respect.—Cicero.

Best Medicine in The World for Colic And Diarrhoea.

"I find Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to be the best remedy in the world," says Mr. C. L. Carter, of Skirum, Ala. "I am subject to colic and diarrhoea. Last spring it seemed as though I would die, and I think I would if I hadn't taken Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I haven't been troubled with it since until this week, when I had a very severe attack and took half a bottle of the twenty-five cent size Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and this morning I feel like a new man." For sale by J. H. Orme, the leading druggist in Western Kentucky. Haynes & Taylor, the enterprising druggists, of Marion.

Wonderfully Made.

A clergyman happened to tell his son one Saturday afternoon what lesson he would read in church the next morning. The boy got his father's Bible, found the lesson place and glued together the connecting pages. In consequence the clergyman read to his flock the following day that "when Noah was 120 years old he took unto himself a wife who was (here he turned the page) 140 cubits long, 40 cubits wide, built of gopher wood, and covered with pitch in and out." After reading the passage the clergyman read it again to verify it, then, pushing back his spectacles he looked gravely at his congregation and said: "My friends, this is the first time I have ever read that in the Bible, but I accept it as evidence of the assertion that we are fearfully and wonderfully made."

Hampton Campmeeting.

The Hampton campmeeting will be held August 8 to 18, inclusive. The meeting will be in charge of Rev. C. E. Dees, Rev. Wise, Rev. Robt. Johnson, P. C. Bro. S. H. Prather will conduct the singing, hotel and feed stable on the grounds. JOHN C. HARDIN, Acting Secretary.

Hands Out Good Advice.

W. L. Douglas the millionaire, who began life at a shoemaker's bench, became Governor of his State and is now the head of a mammoth business enterprise and whose motto is "Newspaper Advertising," pays this tribute to the only true medium of publicity: "First, be sure you have something worthy to advertise. Something that is just as good as you say it is. Struggle to keep it just as good, and then advertise it constantly. The newspaper is the field in which my advertising has brought me the only perfectly satisfactory returns. And I have tried many lines before settling down exclusively to that theory."

DeKoven.

That the spirit of improvement is unabated at DeKoven it shown by Gen. Manager S. P. Sturgis having let the contract for 25 four room dwelling houses. Dick Chancellor of near Grove Center has five, Houston Anderson five and McEuen of Sturgis five. We failed to get the names of the contractors for the remaining ten. Work of every kind is moving right along and everybody seems happy.—Sturgis News Democrat.

A Western Trip.

Tolu, Ky., July 8, 1907.

EDITOR RECORD-PRESS:—In our former letter we had reached our destination, Winninucca, Nevada. This little city about the size of Crittenden county's capital is in the heart of the Great Basin and is touched by the Union Pacific R. R. Having looked after affairs here, one day only being taken, we continued our journey toward the Golden Gate on the Pacific. We touched at Sacramento, the capital of California.

After leaving the capital we pierced the great wheat growing and hay raising belt where harvesting was being done, the hay being principally alfalfa and barley. The land in this section is said to be worth from $300 to $1500 per acre. Owing to so much rain the land for many miles was inundated by the Sacramento river, said to be about six feet higher than it had ever been known to be.

We entered the suburbs of San Francisco about 3 o'clock p. m. making our change of cars at Golden Gate depot where we went aboard a vessel in which we crossed the San Francisco Bay. We were on the bay about forty-five minutes. Here we entered the main part of the city and here we beheld the awful work of the great earthquake. While waiting for our train we proceeded to take in the sights. Great chasms still yawn in the very streets and wrenched, wrecked and demolished buildings stand yet as monuments of the great catastrophe. The city electric light building now in ruins was the largest building I ever saw, the two power wheels being 40 feet in diameter.

The demand for laborers in carpentry and brick masonry was very great. Common labor was $3 per day. Carpenters $4 to $8 and masons and brick layers from $8 to $12 per day.

Leaving this city we took a sleeper, getting a much needed rest, and proceeded Southward. Traveling all night, shortly after breakfast we came in sight of the Pacific ocean and kept close to the shore line for a distance of 400 miles. A great curiosity we saw was a great number of oil wells out in the ocean, they being connected with the shore by trestled tramway. Along this ocean view route we saw many United States war vessels, which from our view point were things of beauty. Some we saw were at the docks, some were riding the waves while others were at anchor. Leaving the ocean shore line we went into the fruit and flowering section. We saw one orange orchard of 300 acres. Acres and acres of strawberries came to view and many hands were gathering the fruit, for you must understand that Southern California is a land of perpetual summer.

Los Angeles is the most beautiful city I ever saw. It is fast, sanitary and cultured, the twentieth century hustle being in full sway. We looked here for some of our Tolu boys, but not knowing their business we could not find them. We learned, however, afterwards that they all have honorable, lucrative positions.

Our destination being Southward we went through the mineral belt of Arizona, making our next stop at El Paso, Texas. In Arizona we crossed the Grand Canyon on a bridge 1883 feet long and 321 feet high. Crossing the states of Texas and Louisiana our next stop was at New Orleans. The state of Louisiana is a great rice growing state and numberless rice mills dotted along our route. Sugar cane is a great staple of this state and cane mills and cane fields were as numerous in certain sections as were the rice fields and mills. New Orleans is a quaint, ancient city, being English, Spanish, French and many other nations represented in its makeup.

Our route from this city home is a familiar one and needs no description as we rounded in via Memphis, Paducah and Princeton.

Very truly,

The First Successful Automobile.

The first successful automobile in the world was invented by a Des Moines, Iowa, man, manufactured in Des Moines and run in Des Moines streets. Today there are nearly a million horseless carriages, all told, in the world. About one-fourth of this number are owned in the United States. William Morrison, the inventor, is still alive and a resident of Des Moines. When Morrison's electric horseless carriage first appeared it was as great a curiosity as an air ship was a year ago. The latest invention in connection with the electric automobile is the mercury arc rectifier developed by Dr. Charles P. Steinmetz of the General Electric Company to change alternating current to direct current for changing the batteries of the electric vehicles.

ROBUST DOUGH ROLLERS.

Work in a Pie Factory is on the Scale of Athletics.

To properly describe the processes of baking pumpkin pies would require one skilled in the technicalities of the art. This is the way it looks to a mere man: First, the coarse yellow rind is removed, and then the pumpkin is cut open and the seeds taken out, after which the two halves are thoroughly washed. Then a husky lad takes a sort of cleaver and cuts the pumpkin into large pieces, which are fed into a steam chopping machine and reduced to small fragments. These are placed in a huge copper boiler capable of holding perhaps twenty-five gallons. After the boiling has been completed a pasty mixture of eggs, milk, sugar, cinnamon and other spices and condiments is added and well stirred in, and then the yellow mass is ready to be filled into the skeleton pies. The crust is prepared in another department, where the dough is mixed, rolled and placed in the pans ready to receive the filling. If any one thinks that pie-making is an easy and effeminate employment he should visit a pie bakery and inspect the muscles developed on the arms of expert pie crust mixers and rollers. They would be creditable to a trained athlete and would put many a mill worker and blacksmith to the blush. Finally the pies are placed on racks and shoved into huge ovens that resemble nothing else so much as the kilns used for burning brick. These kilns are constructed in any size desired, with a capacity of anywhere from fifty up to several hundred at a time, while they can be refilled every half hour or less.—Pacific Monthly.

PECULIAR EYES.

The Organs of Sight of the Spider and the Snail.

The next time you catch a spider try to find the eight shiny little eyes at the anterior end, some above and some put under the edge of what we may imagine to be its forehead. To examine these parts to the best advantage hold the spider in tweezers, or it may be better to use a spider killed by being dropped into a bottle of diluted alcohol. These eight eyes vary in arrangement and in relative size in various species of spiders—in some they may be arranged in two rows, in other in three; some may be very small and others large and prominent, and so on—but there they are, rather poor eyes, near-sighted, looking in several directions at once, and the spider, which can never shut any of them, is sure to see everything that approaches unless it is asleep, in which case the sight is dead. For some purposes it may be convenient to have eyes that roll up and disappear at the approach of danger. And these are exactly what the snail has, situated at the end of two long and sensitive palpi, or feelers. When all is quiet their owner extends these organs, and you can see at their tips small round knobs upon which the eyes are placed. But if you touch one of the palpi or even jar the snail a little the eyes begin to back into these feelers as the tip of a glove finger may be turned in, and they no longer see any danger that may be lurking at hand.

Dangers of the Revenue Service.

The officers of the internal revenue service make little fuss over their accomplishments. The world scarcely hears of them unless they have had a desperate hand to hand fight with mountain desperadoes which has resulted in the death of several of their number. But day after day and night after night they go about their work calmly, quietly, in constant danger of death from a shot from some ambush, moonshiner or blockader. Yet these men are an absolute necessity for the safeguarding of the country's interests, and they deserve much credit for their hard task, scarcely appreciated by the great mass of the people.—David A. Gates in Metropolitan Magazine.

When the Wire Tires.

"Messages," said a telegraph operator, "always slide over the wires better on Monday than on any other day. The wires, you see, have profited by their Sunday rest. It is a fact that inanimate as well as animate things get tired and need a vacation occasionally. You know how true this is of razors, of automobiles, of locomotives, and it is just as true of telegraph wires. A wire after its Sunday rest gives a quicker, a fuller and a more delicate transmission. It is like a piano that has just been tuned."

The Thumb.

The radical difference between the hand of man and of the monkey lies in the thumb. In the human hand the thumb has the "opposing power," which means that the thumb can be made to touch the tip of each or any of the other fingers on the same hand. The monkey's thumb is nonopposable. —Pittsburg Dispatch.

Needed the Money.

"Say," queried old Wedderly, "why don't you get married?" "Because," replied young Singleton, "I'm too poor." "Huh!" rejoined the old man. "When I was your age I was so poor I had to marry."—Chicago News.

They Must Like It.

"Does this powder really kill the cockroaches?" asked the housekeeper at the grocery. "Why, certainly not!" replied the grocer. "If it did we wouldn't sell a third of the quantity."

Letter From the West.

Ft. Towson, I. T.
July 11, 1907.

Editors Record-Press,

Dear Sirs:—As this is a lonely, rainy day in the pine forests of the West, I thought I would try to make a few moments pleasant by writing a line to your dear old paper.

I left Piggott, Ark., July 4th, going from there to Texarkana, Ark. over the Cotton Belt Route; from there I went to Ft. Worth, Texas, going through Detroit, Paris and Commerce; from Ft. Worth I went to Sherman, Tex., crossing Red river near Dennison, Tex.; from Dennison I went to Bryant, I. T.; from there I came here, coming through many other places, the names of which I have forgotten.

Ft. Towson is located on a spur of the Devil mountains in the Choctaw nation and is on the Frisco Railroad in the center of one of the finest pine forests of the territory. This a new town of several hundred inhabitants. A new saw mill is being built here now with a capacity of one hundred and fifty thousand feet of lumber daily.

Hands of all kinds are in great demand here. Wages range as follows: Common labor, such as timber cutting, $2; saw mill hands from $1.50 to $2.50 per day; teamsters $1.75; section laborers $1.50 per day; carpenters and brick layers $2.50 to $4. per day.

There is a new Railroad being built through this place into the mountains and a great many hands are needed for this work.

This a high healthy country, but thinly settled on account of most of the land belonging to the Indians and has never been opened up for settlement. But the Government is making arrangements to divide the land among the Indians, giving each 160 acres and what is left of the land will be for sale at about $3.00 per acre. This is black sandy land and produces well and is easily cleared and cultivated.

I have failed so far to meet any Kentuckians here. I am thinking of rounding in home soon for a few days chat with old friends.

Please send my paper here instead of Piggott, Ark. and oblige. Wishing best luck to you and old friends.

I am yours respectfully,
JNO. E. ROBERTS.

The First Requisite of Beauty.

The first requisite of beauty is a clear complexion. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup clears a sallow blotched complexion as it stimulates the liver and bowels, and the eyes become bright and clear. You owe it to your friends to take it if your complexion is bad. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is very pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. H. Orme.

Somebody Relieves Him of His Purse.

Kearney Blue, traveling salesman for a Louisville firm, was relieved of seven dollars in cash and a promissory note for thirty dollars at the Union Station early this morning. He went to sleep while waiting for a train and somebody looted his pockets.

There is no clue to the guilty parties and Mr. Blue is anxious to get back his note for the thirty dollars even if he has to lose the cash.—Henderson Gleaner.

Wise Counsel From The South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles, I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at J. H. Orme's drug store. Price 50 cents.

The Passing of the Pioneer.

Humanity is swarming over the globe and penetrating to its most hidden recesses. The noble army of pioneers will presently pass away. The pathfinder and the axewielders will find their occupation gone. There will be no more outposts of civilization, no heroic advance guard. All this will come to pass in time, but there are some localities that are sufficiently wild to test the courage of the pioneer skirmish line. One of the wildest of these appears to lie along the route of the Uganda railway in East Africa. From one of the advance stations on this jungle line the official in charge is reported to have recently telegraphed to the traffic manager asking for ball cartridges for his Snider rifle. He complained that for three nights a lion has slept on the station platform. He adds that when the lion isn't sleeping he is prowling up and down, clawing at the wall and door and doing his best to force an entrance to the office. Naturally the lone station master finds his rest a good deal broken by the unwelcome caller, and he wants the ball cartridges to frighten him away. Here is a picture for you—the lone station in the jungle the steel rails shining in the moonlight, the great yellow brute pacing up and down the platform, the wakeful watcher in his insecure office. When the last pioneer goes he will take with him an element of romance that the world cannot help regretting.—Exchange.

He leaves a wife and four children, one child by his first wife, she being the wife of John W. Brantley, of this city, and three children by his last wife.

He professed faith in Christ at the age of 20 years and joined the Methodist church, in which he remained a member for five years, he then united with the Missionary Baptist church, of which he was a member, at Sullivan Ky., at the time of his death. He leaves a host of friends and relatives, besides his family, brothers and sisters, to mourn his loss. May God's richest blessings rest upon them all and especially upon the wife and children.

Killed at Dawson Springs.

Madisonville, Ky., July 16.—Mrs. Sallie Laffoon, a widow lady of Farmington, died at Dawson Springs Saturday morning at 3 a. m. from injuries received Friday night while attending a dance at the New Century Hotel. Mrs. Laffoon, in company with others, was standing on the top of a rear door looking into dance hall. Mrs. Laffoon did not know that the step on which they were standing was four feet from the ground, and she suddenly stepped backward and was precipitated to the pavement below, alighting on her shoulder and breast. Her shoulder was broken and one of her lungs was mashed and she sustained other internal injuries.

It was realized at the first that the lady was dangerously if not fatally injured and her relatives were notified. She was taken to the residence of Mr. W. D. Laffoon, where she was visiting, and passed away Saturday morning.

Mrs. Laffoon, was the widow of the late Thomas Laffoon, of Farmington, and leaves three children, all grown—one son and two daughters. The daughters are both married. The son, Floyd, was with Company G, of Farmington, at the Jamestown Exposition on encampment and received the news of his mother's injury too late to reach her side before she died.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative and my Book on either dyspepsia. The Heart or the Kidneys Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. A POINTER FOR TOURISTS.

Put Your Prayer Book on Top of the Things in Your Trunk.

"If you ever go to Bermuda I can tell you how to make time at the custom house," said a returning Washingtonian. "I reached Bermuda early in the morning. I made up my luggage rather hastily before leaving the ship.

"Just as I was ready to close my suitcase I noticed that I had left my prayer book on the lounge. I pitched it in rather unceremoniously, strapped down the case and hurried ashore.

"You don't have to wait to declare as you do when coming into the port of New York. As I stepped into the office of the Johnny Bull official I unstrapped my case and opened it up. The official talked at me as if I had been a telephone.

"Hello!" he said the first thing. "What's this?" he asked, picking up my prayer book. "Prayer book, eh? All right. Shut up your case."

"Want to look at anything else?" I asked.

"No. You're all right, my friend. Any man who will put his prayer book on top of his traps isn't likely to beat the government. I'll take that for your declaration."

I threw him half a dozen cigars.

That's where I made my mistake.

"Got any more like these in that case?" asked the official.

"I said I hadn't, but do you know he wouldn't believe me, and I had to open up the case again, and he went through it as if he thought I was a smuggler."

A PRODUCT OF MILK.

Galalith Is So Strong You Could Build a House With It.

You could build a house of milk if you liked, and it would be as strong and lasting as though made of Aberdeen granite, says M. Glen Pfling in Technical World Magazine. Moreover, all the fittings could be made of the same substance, and they would outlive the finest ordinary material that was ever constructed.

Billiard tables, combs, fancy boxes and many other things are made from galalith, which is made from milk.

There is really no limit to the articles which can be made from galalith. It takes dyes readily, and inferior grades are colored. The best remain white, however, for white galalith brings the highest price because of its similarity to ivory. The first grade of galalith is made up into knife handles, and it brings almost as high a figure as would so much ivory.

Galalith is the best substitute for ivory ever discovered, for it is smooth to the touch, retains its soft, creamy tinting for years, is not marred by soap and water, and, unlike celluloid, is proof against fire. It does not chip or crack like bone and can be cut into the most delicate shapes, being tough and not easily broken.

Cave Dwellers.

Grottoes and caverns are used, more or less, as shelters by primitive peoples, and thus inhabited caves are of course most frequent in Africa. A considerable number of natives make their homes in caves along the southern shore of the strait of Gibraltar, and in some of those caves are found the polished stones and arrowheads of the stone age. Troglodyte villages are frequent in the Tebessa territory of Algeria, one of which at Djeurf, 250 feet above the gorge of the Wadi Halhal, is reached by steps cut in the rock. The inhabitants of the Tunisian island of Galite are cave dwellers, their habitations being grottoes which they have dug out of the limestone or ancient burial caverns that they have enlarged. The subterranean villages of Matmata and of Medenine, hewn out of the rock, are in southern Tunisia.

Racine at His Work.

Racine, the French writer, composed his work while walking rapidly about, shouting out the lines in a loud voice. One day while he was thus composing part of his play of "Mithridates" in the Tuileries gardens in Paris he was surrounded by a group of workmen who took him to be a maniac. On his return home from these walks he would write down scene after scene in prose, and when they were finished he would exclaim, "My tragedy is done," considering the transposition of the lines into verse only a trivial thing.

A Remarkable Church.

A small watering place in Austria named Eichwald can boast of possessing a remarkable church. It was first built by an Italian architect at Venice at the expense of Prince Carlos Clary-Aldringen, who is a great admirer of Italian architecture. When it was finished the church was taken to pieces and packed in thousands of numbered cases for transportation to Eichwald. At that place it was eventually rebuilt and then made over to its inhabitants as a gift from the prince.

Almost an Insult.

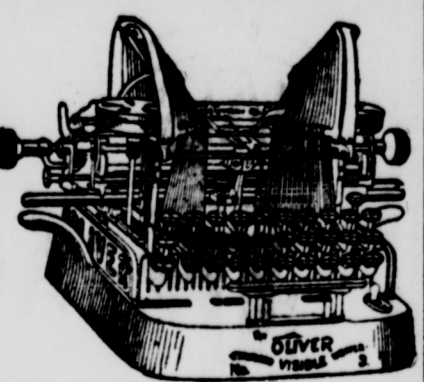

Bess—Yes, the engagement's off. He told her she ought to give up novels and read something more substantial—something that would improve her. Ben—Well? Bess—Gracious! Don't you see? The idea of a man intimating to his fiancée that she could be improved in any way!—Exchange.

But He Realizes It Now.

Mrs. Benham—Many a true word is spoken in jest. Mr. Benham—That's so. I little dreamed when I said, "With all my worldly goods I thee endow," that you would take every cent I had.—Twinkles.

When a man is drifting with the stream he is likely to think that the stream has ceased to flow.—New Haven Leader.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and cases of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol relieves indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol for dyspepsia does not only relieve indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy helps all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Ball, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says:— "I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."
